DCR has provided an updated version of the MOA that appears to satisfactorily resolve our 2 primary concerns (DCR accepting liability only in instances of their willful misconduct, and DCR having the right to review and approve how the Town and AmVets defend legal claims). However, it appears that not all changes from the prior version are highlighted in "red-line/cross-out," and a couple of new provisions are somewhat problematic or warrant clarification. Accordingly, Town Counsel is conducting a comprehensive review of this latest version.

Nonetheless, I am encouraged that DCR has apparently amended the MOA in response to our concerns. Mr. Flynn's review will confirm if this is indeed the case.
