Subject: Fwd: Bag Delivery Update

Update on PAYT bags: Deliveries of large bags to local retailers will begin at 10am tomorrow morning.

Orders for small bags from retailers will be filled on the normal schedule. Wastezero, the bag vendor, has ample supply of small bags available for delivery upon orders from local retailers.

Steve, VP at Wastezero, notes below they anticipate a "return to normal" once their current manufacturing run is complete and the MA warehouses are restocked.

A handful of residents have purchased bags from the DPW service counter.

Thanks,
Jeremy
