Additional Information

Please add any additional information you think may be pertinent

September 24th MetroWest Cornhole will be hosting a cornhole tournament to benefit the Allain Family at AMVETS Post 79. The event is planned to have two separate activities: a Bring Your Own Partner (BYOP) competitive tournament and a blind draw social tournament. Both tournaments will be structured the same - 4 round robin games for seeing into a double elimination bracket. The events will kick off at 1pm and could run well into the evening, depending on attendance. (Comparable events held by MetroWest Cornhole have garnered anywhere from 60-100 players). The entry fees for the tournaments will be split between winner's payouts and proceeds to benefit the family. The Allain Family is a sponsor of MetroWest Cornhole and they recently suffered the tragedy of losing their infant son. The proceeds will help with medical and funeral costs. MetroWest Cornhole (Matt and Megan) does not profit in any way from the event. In addition to cornhole there will also be raffle prizes available to benefit the cause.
